

Newari Summer School in Vienna

September 9th – September 21st 2013

You will be surprised finding yourself able to conduct simple conversations within a few days.

Use the unique chance to explore the rich culture and language of the Newar, a most fascinating ethnic group from the Kathmandu-Valley.

Get to know the world of spoken Newari by the experienced language teacher and native speaker Lakshmi Nath Shrestha in a pleasurable way.

Practice every day conversation, learn to sing Newari folk songs and enjoy the great atmosphere of Vienna in late summer.

Date: September 9th – September 21st 2013

Time Table: Mo-Fr: 10am – 4pm,
Sa: 10am - 1pm

Venue: ISTB, University of Vienna

Teacher: Lakshmi Nath Shrestha

Language of instruction: English/Newari

Fee: regular: 240,- €, students: 180,- €
(accommodation excluded)

Contact: johanna.buss@univie.ac.at

Deadline for application: 30.06.2013

Application by mail or fax:

ISTB, Spitalgasse 2, Hof 2.1, 1090 Wien

phone: +43-1-4277-43501 or 43502

fax: +43-1-4277-9435

Application by email: istb@univie.ac.at