

KANNADA SUMMER SCHOOL 2013

Language and Culture of Karnataka (South India)

September 2 – 14, 2013, Würzburg

ಕನ್ನಡ ಬೇಸಿಗೆ ಶಿಬಿರ
೨.೯. - ೧೪.೯. ೨೦೧೩

The course will provide an introduction to the Kannada Language through an extensive program combining spoken Kannada with reading, writing and grammar skills. It also offers an introduction to the history and culture of the Kannada-speaking areas of the Indian subcontinent.

Course level: Beginners without previous knowledge.

Please register until July 28, 2013

Contact: Sarah Merkle, M.A., Chair of Indology, University of Würzburg
Email: sarah.merkle@uni-wuerzburg.de, Tel: (0931) 31-89924

Cost: The Summer School is free of cost. Students need to make a small contribution towards the cost of teaching materials. Accommodation: Can be arranged upon request. Students need to pay for their accommodation.

For further information: contact Sarah Merkle or see <http://www.indologie.uni-wuerzburg.de/aktuelles>

The course is taught by experts in Kannada language and culture:

Prof. Dr. B.A. Viveka Rai, retired Professor of Kannada Literature and Folklore at the University of Mangalore, Dr. Katrin Binder, Indologist and professional performer of Yakshagana and Sarah Merkle, M.A., doctoral student, Chair of Indology, University of Würzburg

This will be the third time they teach this course together.

"Great combination of Indian as well as non-Indian teachers."

"Well structured language classes, effective exercises and very interesting lectures."

*„Nice atmosphere, friendly and qualified teachers with a lot of patience!
We learned a lot!"*

