

A Kerala Month in Tübingen

9.10-9.11.2015

University of Tübingen
Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies,
Dept. of Indology

For a month Tübingen will host different kinds of events, meetings and classes connected with Kerala culture and in particular with Malayalam language and literature.

- Three-day celebration of the Gundert Chair (9.-11.10.2015)

9.10.2015: Inauguration of the Gundert Chair in Tübingen

10.-11.10.2015: Symposium on Kerala culture and Malayalam language

- Regular classes twice a week with Gundert-Professor Scaria Zacharia focusing on the Malayalam language and literature (12.10-6.11.2015)

12.-16.10.2015: Spoken Malayalam practice and grammar with Prof. S. Zacharia

19.-22.10.2015: Spoken Malayalam practice and comprehension exercises with Prof. S. Zacharia

26.-30.10.2015: Easy novel readings with Prof. S. Zacharia

2.-6.11.2015: Easy novel readings with Prof. S. Zacharia

- Activities and events on Kerala culture

17.-18.10.2015: Visit of the “Schattentheater-Ausstellung” at the Linden Museum, Stuttgart.

13.10.2015: Evening lecture on Kerala ritual traditions.

23.-25.10.2015: Intensive Workshop with S. Zacharia on linguistic features of Malayalam and Maṅipravāḷam.

4.11.2015: Lecture-Demonstration on Kerala’s theatrical traditions

Intensive Workshop

(23.-25.11.2015)

University of Tübingen
Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies,
Dept. of Indology

Schedule

Friday 23.11

11.00-13.00 & 15.30-17.30

Introduction to the development and features of Malayalam:

The mingling of different languages through centuries

Saturday 24.11

10.00-13.00 & 15.30-17.30

Reading of extracts from early Campū texts

Sunday 25.11

10.00-13.00

Reading of extracts from Kēraḷōlpatti

Registration until 15.10.2015

For registration please contact: katarina.vinkovic@student.uni-tuebingen.de

Infos: elena.mucciarelli@indo.uni-tuebingen.de