

Intensive First-Year Sanskrit and Colloquial Tibetan

McGill University Summer Language Institute and
The School of Religious Studies
McGill University, Montréal, Québec, Canada

Learn Sanskrit or Tibetan over the summer at one of Canada's premier universities, located in the heart of Montréal, a multilingual, culturally diverse and dynamic city. Through the McGill Summer Language Institute, the School of Religious Studies offers intensive first-year Sanskrit and Colloquial Tibetan. These classes prepare students to enter intermediate-level courses in the fall term.

Summer 2019

May 6-June 7, 2019: Colloquial Tibetan (RELG 269; 6 credits)

June 10-July 17: Intensive Introductory Sanskrit (RELG 257D1-D2; 6 credits)

For further information, please visit <https://www.mcgill.ca/religiousstudies/summer-languages> or contact Prof. Hamsa Stainton (hamsa.stainton@mcgill.ca)

McGill