

BHANDARKAR ORIENTAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE, PUNE (INDIA)

Academic Development Programme Supported by Infosys Foundation

ANNOUNCEMENT

Various academic programmes have been instituted at the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute (BORI), thanks to the generous funding received from the Infosys Foundation for specialized research in thrust areas such as

1. Indological Studies
2. Buddhist Studies
3. The study of India's cultural relations with other Asian countries in the ancient and early medieval period, and
4. The comparative study of religions.

An announcement of various positions has been made on the website of the BORI. The same is being made on national and international internet platforms and is being sent to scholars in India and abroad.

Curriculum Vitae along with detailed project proposals shall be invited from reputed scholars.

Interested scholars are requested to send a letter of interest to the Honorary Secretary of the BORI expressing his / her desire to conduct research at the BORI, together with a current CV and detailed research project. Names of eligible scholars may also be suggested by others with their CVs and detailed research projects. The format of the research project proposal is also available on BORI's website.

The Search-cum-Selection Committee is authorised to nominate a scholar and possesses the right to accept or reject any name and/or research project.

All other details regarding remuneration, logistics, etc. are being uploaded on the website of BORI.

For more information and queries, please contact:

Prof. Shrikant Bahulkar
Honorary Secretary,
Phone: +91-20-25656932 (Office)
+91-9272296556 (Mobile)
Email: secretary@boriindia.org
