

THIRD ANNUAL

Workshop in Indian Epigraphy

FOURTH TO ELEVENTH CENTURIES CE

This international workshop will introduce participants to the skills necessary for reading and interpreting inscriptions of the Maitraka, Kadamba, Calukya, Rastrakuta, and Silahara dynasties. Daily sessions on the paleography, grammar, and interpretation of stone and copper plate inscriptions will be led by the project organizers. We will learn to use estampages and photographs, consult text editions and digital tools, and contextualize our readings in light of archaeological and historical evidence. Featured instructors will include Dr. Annette Schmiedchen (Humboldt University, Berlin), Dr. Elizabeth Cecil (Florida State University), Dr. Mekhola Gomes (Durham University), Dr. Jason Neelis (Wilfrid Laurier University), Dr. Daud Ali (University of Pennsylvania) and Dr. Luther Obrock (University of Toronto, Mississauga). The workshop will be held virtually over Zoom, hosted by the University of Toronto. It is open to both students and faculty with an intermediate knowledge of Sanskrit.

MON / WED / FRIDAY FROM 9–3 EST
JUNE 14TH THROUGH 26TH
