

The Rare Book School, the University of Pennsylvania South Asia Center, Department of Religious Studies, and Department of South Asia Studies present:

---

From the Cover Inwards: A Conservator's Approach to Reading Bound Manuscripts

Public Lecture by Yasmeen Khan, Head of the Paper Conservation Section in the Conservation Division of the Library of Congress

---

October 21, 5 PM-6:30 PM EST

---

This is a public viewing party of the conclusion of the "Book Cultures" Symposium at the Annual Conference on South Asia at the University of Wisconsin-Madison

Register to attend online at book-cultures.com (or using the QR code to the right). No registration is required to attend the in-person viewing party, located at the University of Pennsylvania Van Pelt Library, Lippincott 242. Dinner for in-person attendees is immediately following the lecture. Email robbme@upenn.edu to reserve a place at dinner.

