The All India Oriental Conference (AIOC)

AIOC, established in 1919 in Shimla, Himachal Pradesh, owes its inception to the tireless efforts of Sir R. G. Bhandarkar. Since its foundation, AIOC has made significant contributions to Indian language and literature. With a rich history of organizing 50 successful sessions, it has produced numerous publications and conference proceedings that have greatly enriched the literary world. This year, AIOC proudly hosts its 51st session.

Welcome to the 51st All Indian Oriental Conference to be held in Udupi, Karnataka.

The 51st session of the All India Oriental Conference (AIOC) will be jointly organized by Bharatiya Vidvat Parishat, Paryaya Sri Puttige Matha, and Central Sanskrit University. This year's conference will spotlight 20 themes across various disciplines of Indian studies, promising literary and cultural extravaganza that will offer attendees a lifetime experience. The Vidyamanyayuva Paṇḍitapariṣat is a cherished part of the AIOC, where scholarly discussions take place among the young Pandits over age-old concepts and their traditional and modern interpretations. This year, we are also conducting the Kalyāṇiyuvapaṇḍitāpariṣat for women scholars. Additionally, the Vādirājayuvakavigoṣṭhī remains an integral part of this parishat.

We invite applications from eligible young scholars, aged 18-40, to participate in the Vakyartha sessions during the AIOC. Scholars from various disciplines, such as Vyakarana, Nyaya, Mimamsa, and others, are encouraged to apply.

Certificates will be provided for all the participants
